

walton-verona elementary school

Verona, KY

“We clean the hallways every night, and they look brand new.”

Bill Boyle, Superintendent,
Walton-Verona School District

Walton-Verona Elementary School, originally built in 1971, houses about 750 children ranging from pre-school to fourth grade. Located in Verona, KY, the school has undergone multiple renovations and add-ons due, in large part, to growing student enrollment. Officials have carried over many of the maintenance and care practices from the middle and high school facilities, which also feature large nora® flooring installations.

Challenge: Provide elementary school students and teachers with a clean, well-maintained atmosphere that promotes learning and development.

Project Requirements: Low maintenance, Durability, Versatility, Life-cycle costs, Good acoustics, Underfoot comfort

Flooring Solution: noramenti® grano, noraplan® eco, nora® pro clean system

Architect/Designer: Robert E. Hayes & Associates, Fort Mitchell, KY
